Dear Classmates in Service,
In the pages of this, the Cadmus Club wishes to portray a tangible, precise picture of war-time Tennessee High School. We hope that it will enable you to recapture the memories of your Alma Mater, and to realize that your fellow-students are strongly behind you in the task of pre-serving our freedom.

The 1945

On the city's southern border
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Forward ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail;
Hail to thee! Our Alma Mater!
Tennessee, all hail!

Miss Reveley Owen

Whose merry heart has cheered
away our gloom,

Whose wise words have guided
our lives while here,

Whose spirit has been an inspiration to our daily living,

Whose love and interest in our schoolmates in the service have increased our appreciation of their sacrifice,

Whose genial personality will remain with us while memory
lasts,

We, the Cadmus Club, lovingly dedicate this, the 1945 CADMEA.

The halls still ring with the echoes of the slamming of locker doors, the dropping of books, and the shouting of students above the clamor.

Here Seniors stand in a close group, feeling very superior and discussing the thrill of graduation. Not so very far away stand a group of Juniors, gazing wistfully at the gang of Seniors. Crowding around the drinking fountain, the Sophomores avert their eyes from the realization that they will soon be upper-classmen. The subdued Freshmen, huddled in the corner, pretend to ignore their inferiority to the other groups. The bell rings and the groups make a quick dash to their various classes.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

Thoughts from a Senior's Heart

Four dreams, four hopes, four fears—
Realized and wrapped in shining years.
For friends, for fun, for strife
They'll never be surpassed throughout our life.

These mark our hope, our trust—
The living of a life long planned—
A beginning of our fate.
We leave the child to take men's stand.

We were wistful freshmen
When first we tested Viking creed.
As Seniors now we go forth
To meet the future's willful need.

So, come on, New, Strange, Life!
We've learned to wait and labor long.
We're Youth, with four great years
To keep us true and strong.

Behold, herein doth lie the doings of the Senior Class of '45. These pages tell but feebly of the joys and privileges that have been ours. Through endless toil we have struggled, sometimes slowly, sometimes more rapidly; but whatever came it only cemented our friendship more firmly. Some of our number have already given themselves to the service of our country and now we, too, stand ready to give whatever life asks of us.

To those we leave behind, we say,
"Make use of life and time today.
Be strong, be loyal and upright,
And keep the Viking honor bright!"

To those who heard our country's call
And did not come to school this fall,
To you, in air, on land, on sea—
"Good luck! God speed, where'er you be!"

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of Tennessee High School, City of Bristol, County of Sullivan, State of Tennessee, being of sound mind, good health and generous disposition, and realizing the nearness of our departure, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

First: To the Faculty we bequeath our sincerest gratitude for their untiring efforts and our undying appreciation for bearing with us these many years.

Second: To our faithful advisers, Miss Billie Baxter, Miss Reveley Owen, and Miss May Roberson we leave our deepest gratitude for their helpfulness and enduring patience.

Third: To the Freshmen and Sophomores, we will the respect and admiration with which we are held by the entire faculty, also our dignity and ability to cope with all situations.

Fourth: To the Juniors our personal bequests as follows:

I, NANCY ALLEN, leave to FRANCES BOWERS my golden locks and various hair styles. I, MARJORIE BARKER, will twirling baton and snappy strut to any Junior who would like to take my place as majorette. I, ELLAREE BEATY, being an enthusiastic fizzical femme, will all my gymnastic inclinations and my gym suit to MARGARET HANEY and AUDRA FINE. I, PAT BOWMAN, bequeath my golden voice to PEGGY WOOLWINE. I, EDYTHE HULL, leave my dimples and winning smile to BILL POOLE with these words: "For that naturally brighter smile, use Ipana for massage twice daily." I, BILL KING, leave my ability to turn feminine hearts into tail-spins to ARLIE GRIMES. I, JUNE SPARGER, leave my only weapon, my smile, to BENNY POWERS. I, LAURA ANN KING, bequeath my mid-night oil to PAUL MORRELL, assuring him it is the secret process which produces 90's on report cards. I, BETTY PIPPIN, leave my intelligence to my brother, BILL, with hopes he may someday graduate. We, STUART HARKRADER and HENRY PETERS, will to CARL GALLIHER and JACK MORTON and HAYDEN LAMBERT part of our boundless energy. I, DOTTY TURNER, bequeath my photogenic face to BETTY BARKER. I, MARY LYNN HAYNES, bequeath to HOWELL ARTHUR my dignity and poise. We, ALBERT PROFFIT and ANN FAUCETTE, will our charming personalities and friendly dispositions to ELLIS HARR and BILL NICAR. I, LEE SPAULDING, a promising young student (especially when it comes to promises), leave my excess knowledge to WANDA HUNT, KATHLEEN SCOTT, and LAUREL BOWMAN. We, AILEEN HOBBS and MABEL CAWOOD, students of D. O., will our industrious attitudes to JIMMIE FELTY, MARY FRANCES GREENE, and VIRGINIA JONES. I, DORA MAE SLAGLE, leave my method of the "hunt and peck" system to DORIS DAVIDSON and KATHERINE WATSON. I, JEAN PATRICK, bequeath my excess hair to JANE GLAVIN and BOB JONES. I, BARBARA RUTHERFORD, will my scientific attitude to INEZ CHRISTIAN. I, VIVIAN VANCE, bequeath my "flaming" tresses to CORNELIA BUCHANAN and ANNIE MCNEW. I, DORIS HOCKETT, leave my way with the Virginia High boys to BETTY ARNOLD. We, VICTOR OBENSHAIN and JIM CROCKETT, will our excess "altitude" to JIMMY CROSS and RICHARD NEWSOME. I, BETTY LOU CAMPBELL, leave my joke-book of 1,000 jokes to FRANK WINSTON so he won't have to tell the same one every time. We, DOROTHY BUNN and WANDA MORTON, bequeath to DOTTIE GOOKIN part of our knowledge of shorthand, hoping she will become a capable secretary. I, PAUL MCCLELLAN, leave my angelic curls and smile to BOBBY BALL and BICKLEY FOSTER. I, AUDREY DOAK, will my talent as a fiddler to JANE CARSON. I, NANCY JANE GRAY, bequeath my charming personality and ability to make friends to BETSY BOWERS and MARY HAMRICK. I, JEAN MORPHEW, leave my Palmolive soap to MARY AMELIA COPENHAVER and PATTY ANN FRIZZELL to keep those school-girl complexions. I, MARJORIE BIRDWELL, bequeath my ability to become engaged to PEGGY J. RUSSELL, CHARLIE HARKINS, and SHIRLEY WHITEHEAD. I, JOANNA BOUSH, leave to LAWRENCE CARRIER my quiet, timid, disposition. We, DORIS CARTER and MARTHA COMBS, leave our service men's addresses to TEENY MOTTERN and MARY COMBS, hoping they'll keep up the good work. I, MARY SUE CUNNINGHAM, will my secret method of getting Milligan sailors to anybody interested. (Please form a double line to the right.) I, BETTY DRIVER, bequeath my "snoopy" disposition to RUTH TORBETT, hoping she'll contribute as much to the Maroon and White as I have. I, VIRGINIA EVANS, will my car to JOE ASHLEY to accommodate all his friends. I, CLIFFORD CALDWELL, bequeath to DONALD FRANKLIN and JOE PIPER a portion of my knowledge and all my corny jokes. I, JIM COWAN, leave my contagious grin to BILL BOAZ. I, FRANK BIRDWELL, bequeath to BUNKER BURROW and TOM STOKES my seat in the Physics laboratory—also all knowledge of electricity. I, JOE GODSEY, will my truck, complete with Rover to JIMMY THOMAS. I, SAM GRIFFIN, bequeath to JIMMY CORRIN and GEORGE PETERS my pleasing manner with the fairer sex. We, MARTHA CRUMLEY, FLORENCE THOMAS, and LUCILLE LIPPO, leave a portion of our quietness to DARLENE GENT, ANNETTE JOHNSON, and PEARL LITTLETON. I, LILLIAN HENDRICKS, will my habit of a daily purchase of an ice cream bar to any Junior who wants to make a hit with Mrs. COWAN. I, SELMA IZZEDDIN, leave to BETTY HARDIN my attractive and numerous clothes. We, OLEEN SAYLER and DORIS OWEN, will our lipsticks and art of make-up to BETTY McCARY, ELIZABETH ANN RICHARDS, EDNA MINNICK and MARGUERITE MCNEW. I, DAN MCCRARY, the math shark of the Senior Class, bequeath to BILL HASSINGER my slide-rule. I, LORENE BLEVINS, leave my vast knowledge and love of English to BILL DOGETT and WALTER MILLER. We, SUDELLA LEGGET and FRANCES BARR, bequeath our athletic ability to CATHERINE BOUTEN, MARY L. MACMILLAN and MARGARET LIVERMAN. We, BETTY RADER, SHIRLEY OVERBY and MARY JANE ELLER, will our quiet and pleasing manner to MARY HAGER and NANCY MAUK. I, MARTHA BRISCOE, leave to RUTH RUTHERFORD all my hill-billy tendencies. I, HARRIET GRAY, will to GRACIE FAUCETTE part of my ability to get along with the older men. I, CLARICE MOORE, bequeath my studious attitude and intelligence to FRANCES

In a city-wide contest, this prize-winning essay entitled its writer to a trip to Washington for President Roosevelt's fourth inauguration.

Why We Should Buy Bonds and Keep Them

In a faraway foxhole on a cold rainy day, a boy crouched. He could not be sure that the battle was over yet. It seemed hours until he heard footsteps. Holding tight to his carbine, he ventured to take a peep. Good! It was a friend. The battle was over and the victory won.

Johnny had been lucky. Not one scratch when many had not lived through it. Now he took out of his rain-soaked pocket a billfold, containing the pictures of Mary, his girl; Mom; and Jake, his little pup. He took shelter in a damp tent where fatigue suddenly overcame him, but he could rest now.

Sleep soon came to this tired boy. A smile was on his face as he lay there with thoughts, not of the horrible battle he had just been through, but of his girl, his mother, and Jake. Rest—what a wonderful word to this tired American!

In his mixed dreams that soon came, one in particular took sudden form. Across the broad span of ocean that separated him from those he loved, Johnny could see the beginning of a bridge. Running to the water's edge, he strained his eyes to see and be sure. Yes, there it was with people working frantically on it. As time went on and the bridge grew closer, Johnny could see Mary and Mom carrying beams to men of his hometown who were building the bridge. There was Uncle Tom, Mr. Harris, Joe Brown, Ben Smith—all of his friends—working, sweating, praying that the bridge could soon be finished.

To Johnny it seemed an eternity before he could actually touch the bridge. At last he walked out upon it to meet Mary, Mom, Jake, and all the rest! How could he ever thank them enough for making his return possible!

Suddenly they came to a point where a piece of the bridge was missing. Frantically he asked why. Mary replied, "That was the part old Mr. Simpson loaned. He must have decided he wanted it back."

Are you the Mr. Simpson of our town? Would you take away a part of the bridge that is being built to bring our boys back home? Of course not, if you could help it, but that is just what you are doing every time you cash in a bond this late in the game.

Remember that when you invest your money in bonds and stamps, you are building bridges to bring our boys back home. It is a great responsibility, but still it is a privilege. Surely the G. I. Joes are thanking you in their hearts for what you have done. But this is no time to cash in a bond and tear to pieces the bridges already built.

Buy until it hurts. This is the unselfish thing to do. This is the American thing to do!

Our clubs are in "full swing". The publication room is filled with the noise of typewriters, rattling papers, and shouting voices. Strangely, the "Cadmea" always emerge from this.

Obnoxious odors through the corridors lead us to the laboratory where we find future chemists and biologists diligently working. A little farther down the hall we hear the sound of mumbled Latin and Spanish case endings.

Up in the Home Ec. room we see the future housewives busily sewing or cooking. Those who are preparing to be the vocational geniuses are gathered in Room 5. Our Hi-Ys, Civitan, Girl Reserves, and Bible Club have found ample opportunity to "create, maintain, and extend throughout the school of Christian high standards."

Even though there's a manpower shortage, our athletics are still "on the ball". The old Viking ship on the grid-iron came through the storm this season with high colors and also with the City Championship. The boys on the hardwood are doing equally well, and it looks like a great season from where we stand. Our boys' sports are ably coached by George Gyree and Rupert Smith.

Now, let us turn to the weaker sex. Hmm?? Not any more! Our Fizzical Femmes are carrying out their ship. Ed. program directed by Miss Frances Combe. Highlighting the program is basketball and a First Aid course. We will soon have a school of "angels" of mercy.

COACH SMITH

Coach Rupert Smith came to B. T. H. S. after spending eight years as head coach at Tucumcari, New Mexico. He was formerly coach at Springfield High, Springfield, Tenn., and at Peabody Demonstration School at Nashville, and at Tennessee Polytechnic Institute for eleven years.

Coach Smith completed high school and three years of college work at Middle Tennessee State Teacher's College where he participated in an all-round sports program which included football, basketball, baseball, track, and tennis.

He then went to Vanderbilt University and played on an undefeated football team which won the southern championship that year. He completed his college work at Peabody where he received his B.S. and M.A. degrees.

His first term at Tennessee High has proved that the judgment of the student body at his college was very sound because they voted him the best all-round athlete in college.

COACH TYREE

Coach George Tyree came to captain the Tennessee High Vikings after coaching all sports at Fayette County High School for sixteen years.

The Coach started on his athletic career at Dawson High School, Dawson, Texas, where he participated in all sports and served as captain of the football team in his senior year.

After high school Mr. Tyree went on to Bethel College at Bethel, Tenn., and further pursued his athletic inclinations by playing four years of football and baseball, serving another year as captain of the football team, and saw two years of active service on the basketball squad. Bethel College showed their confidence and admiration for his ability by voting him the best all-round athlete of '26-'27.

Coach Tyree came to B. T. H. S. after we had been without football for a year and has done a splendid job of starting the Vikings to roll again. We all sincerely hope he will be with us at least as long as he was in his first coaching position.

1944 Captains

Heading the 1944 edition of the Tennessee Viking football team were two stalwart and rugged gridsters, Captain Lynn Galloway and Co-Captain Jim Crockett. Captain Galloway's superb blocking from his blocking back position paved the way for many Viking touchdowns, while Co-Captain Crockett was one of the mainstays in the Viking forward wall. Both of these players received the honor of being placed on the All-City team.

1944-'45 Athletic Resume

- Sept. 15—With only four weeks of practice left behind them, the Maroon and White clad warriors of Coaches Tyree and Smith opened the 1944 football season by dropping a bitterly contested battle to the Hilltoppers at Johnson City by a score of 6-0.
- Sept. 22—Invading the Trail of the Lonesome Pine the Tennessee Vikings scored their first victory of the season by edging out the Big Stone Gap Buccaneers, 12-7.
- Oct. 6—In their second engagement with the Johnson City Hilltoppers, Gene Felty's toe slipped and the Vikings dropped another heart-breaker by being on the short end of a 7-0 score.
- Oct. 13—The Tennessee Gridsters waded through the muck and mire of a rain-soaked gridiron to a 15-6 victory over the fighting Morristown eleven.
- Oct. 21—Outclassed by the Betsy Cyclones, probably the best team in upper East Tennessee, the Vikings returned from Elizabethton on the short end of a 19-6 score.
- Oct. 26—Emerging victorious for the first time in Big Five competition, the home team played one of their best ball games of the season to overwhelm the Erwin Blue Devils in Municipal Stadium to the tune of 25-7.
- Nov. 3—Kingsport's vaunted, near irresistible force, met an immovable object, Tennessee's line, in Municipal Stadium and the Vikings carried off a 12-0 victory after eleven years of vain attempts. We love that team!!
- Nov. 10—The whistle blew, the orange-clad Virginians kicked off, Captain Lynn Galloway of the Vikings tucked the ball under his arm and raced 73 yards for a touchdown. Thus the Vikings got under way toward scoring a lop-sided 40-0 win over the bitter cross-town rivals, the Virginia Bearcats, in the traditional classic of the year.

Wrestling the city title from Virginia high and capturing third place in the tough Big Five Conference, the Tennessee Vikings' basketball squad enjoyed one of its most successful seasons in recent years as it compiled a record of 15 victories and 8 losses against the cream of the high school basketball crop of this section. Highlight of the season was the well-earned capture of the city crown as the Vikings defeated the Virginians two out of three well-played and closely-contested ball games, with the third game, which the Vikings won, 29-22, deciding the series. The Bearcats won 17 games and lost only two, both to the Vikings, which gives an indication of how the home team stacked up against Southwest Virginia competition.

More girls are taking part in physical education classes than ever before. Approximately 315 girls meet such classes three times weekly at Tennessee High. A wide variety of activities is offered and four major tournaments are held annually.

Health classes have received lectures on the fundamentals of healthful living and have also completed an American Red Cross course in First Aid. After completing this course, two-thirds of our girls qualified for certificates as registered First Aiders.

MR. STILL, Band Director

MUSIC ★ ★ ★ ★

Mr. Still, who has joined our faculty this year comes to us from Young High in Knoxville, whose music department he organized.

Mr. Still's college education began at the University of Tennessee, where for two years he was a member of the university band. He then went to Emory and Henry College for two more years, where he received his diploma. The next three years he spent majoring in history at Duke University and followed this with one year at Peabody Institute in Nashville where he played with the Peabody Orchestra.

The Music Department has had a busy year as usual. The band played for many of the pep meetings, all the football games, presented many new and fascinating drills at the half, and are already at work on some unusual drills for next year. In addition to all this the band presented a fall and a spring concert.

Plans are now under way to perfect a symphonic concert band.

INGRAN. I, MARY ELIZABETH SMITH, leave to JEWELL HART and MARY T. MINOR, part of my excess height. I, JANE ANN STONE, willingly leave all of my "annual" headaches to PAT BIBEE. We, JOHN HAMRICK and BILL WHITAKER, bequeath our tender messages of love and our eloquent delivery of them to TOMMY HARRIS, VANCE RUCKER, and MARVIN ROCK with these words: "You can fool some of the people some of the time and you can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool some of the people some of the time." We, PHYLLIS and FRANCES EGGERS, will our confusing identity to the CORDER twins, TATE twins, and JANES twins, so they can fool the teachers, too. I, JEAN GOBBLE, leave my raven tresses to BARBARA SANDOS and MARY LOU WALDRON. I, CHARLES WINDERS, bequeath to DONALD LEGG my numerous dance steps. I, OLA THOMAS, leave my ability to slay 'em on the football field to LYNN GALLOWAY, BOB NEAL and JOE RICHARDS. I, MELINDA STERN, will my charming wit and originality to PEGGY PRESLEY and MARION CORRIN. I, JACK SMYTHE, leave my collection of "unusual" ties to CARLTON VANDERVORT and HOWARD MASSEY. I, SAM SENTER, bequeath my radiant smile to GEORGE STEPHENSON and KENT WHITLOCK. I, VIRGINIA WOLFE, will all my novels to any Junior who likes to read. I, BETTY WEBB, bequeath to AMARYLLIS MORRIS and HELEN MORTON my serious attitude. I, HENRY KING, will my popularity among the girls to BOB MILLARD. I, ALICE CRENSHAW, leave my musical talents to NANCY J. PIERSON. I, HUGH HARR, leave my alarm clock to all Juniors who can't manage to get to school on time. We, LENA and EVELYN PHILLIPS, will our helpfulness and cheerfulness to MARY SUE TOLLIVER, LUCILLE ARNOLD, and EDYTHE MORRIS. I, MARIE SAMS, leave my ability to argue and get away with it to ALICE CORDER and JEAN TRAINHAM. I, WINONA MCCORD, do bequeath to MARGARET PYLE my beautiful, blue eyes. We, PEGGY SEXTON and MILDRED MCCLELLAN, will our congenialty and friendliness to EDYTHE McCROSKEY. I, VELVA WOOD, leave my attractive appearance to PEGGY MCCLELLAN. We, BETTY GRAY SHOEMAKER and MARY LOU HAMMER, leave our cheerful dispositions to JEAN ALLEN MUSSELWHITE, MARTHA BOWERY and HELEN JONES. I, SARAH KUHNERT, bequeath to EDGAR MOORE and HORACE BRAMM my unfailing optimism. I, BURNETTE MORRIS, do will to any Junior who wants to become famous, my poetic genius. I, ROGER HERNDON, bequeath my smoo-ooth accent to LOIS ANN CROSS. We, JUDY RUCKER, PHYLLIS BEWLEY and MILLICENT BROGLIN, do leave our phone numbers to any Junior boy who wants a date.

We, the undersigned, do respectively submit this, our last will and testament on this, the 31st day of May, 1945.

"BURLINGTON MILLS OPPORTUNITY" AND YOU

The Burlington Mills management has constantly recognized and rewarded initiative and ability. This policy is known as the "Burlington Mills Opportunity." Nearly 300 persons share this opportunity at Bristol Weaving Company, group member of the Burlington organization. You job-minded graduates are welcome to seek a share in this opportunity too.

The company has installed a training program that is both short and systematic in order to show a new hand the correct and safe way to perform his job. Furthermore, you will be paid while you learn. . . . In planning for that job you will one day take, consider the opportunities Burlington Mills offers YOU here in your home town.
